DEFEAT OF LYNCHBURG GIVES THE FANS GREAT JOY

KEENE'S UNBEATEN COLT IS WINNER

GREAT DAY FOR FAVORITES

The Winners Were Picked by the Talent in Practically Every Race.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 10.—James R. Keene's Colin, the undefeated two-year-old of the year, to-day added another rich stake to his already long list when he won the Saratoga special, six furlongs, at Saratoga. Opposed to him was Uncle, who was recently sold for $30,000. Colin was always a 2 to 5 shot. It was a grand race, and when Colin returned to the stand he was given a rousing cheer. The two colts broke head and head and ran like a team to well into the stretch. Here Colin slowly drew away and won by a length and a half. Summaries:
First race, selling—seven furlongs—Tom McGrath (even) first, Faust (7 to 1) second, Inquisitor (39 to 1) third. Time, 1:25.
Second race—the North American steeplechase, about three miles—Commodore Fontaine (11 to 10) first, Rocket (7 to 1) second. Time, 6:22. One fell; only three starters.
Third—the Saratoga special: six furlongs—Colin (2 to 5) first, Uncle (12 to 5) second. Time, 1:12. Two starters.
Fourth race—the Travers stakes: one mile and a quarter—Gill (4 to 5) first, Golf Ball (even) second, Corkhill (25 to 1) third. Time, 2:07.
Fifth race, selling: five and a half furlongs—March (5 to 1) first, Penance (12 to 1) second, Gallivant (9 to 2) third. Time, 1:59 1-5.

Sixth race—one mile and three-sixteenths—Calmform (12 to 5) first, Tourneuse (12 to 1) second, Gallivant (9 to 2) third. Time, 1:59 1-5.

Seventh race—one mile and three-sixteenths—Calmform (12 to 5) first, Tourneuse (12 to 1) second, Gallivant (9 to 2) third. Time, 1:59 1-5.

EMPIRE CITY'S TRACK REOPENS

For the First Time in Seven Years Running Races Are Had.

NEW YORK, August 10.—For the first time in eight years thoroughbred race-horses were seen in action to-day at the Empire City Race-track near Yonkers. Since 1900 nothing but trotting events have been held on this course, but the Empire City Trotting Club succeeded in getting dates from the Jockey Club and inaugurated a midsummer meeting, which will last eighteen days. Six races made up an interesting program, a great many Western horse-owners being represented. Only two first choices won. Summaries:
First race—six furlongs—Colony (5 to 1) won, Gold Proof (5 to 1) second, Diamond (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:09 1-5.
Second race—five and a half furlongs—Boulding Elk (7 to 2) won, Belphebe (20 to 1) second, Miss Maz-zoni (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:07 4-5.
Third race—Empire City handicap—one mile—Prince Ahmed (4 to 1) won, Cederstrom (7 to 2) second, Topsy Robinson (9 to 2) third. Time, 1:40 3-5.
Fourth race—five and a half furlongs—Handbridge (4 to 5) won,

ROANOKE, VA., August 10.—To-day was the greatest day in the history of baseball in Roanoke, when the Highlanders and the Crew broke even in a double-header. The first game was won by the locals by a score of 2 to 1. Superb work by Willis, together with the all-around playing of the team and a timely hit by Clayton in the thirteenth inning, would have beaten any team. At the conclusion of the first game the fans were beside themselves. Dollars and five dollars went into the hat, which was passed for a collection. A handsome purse was raised to be divided among the team, while Willis and Clayton were the recipients of a nice handful of pocket change. The second game went to Norfolk by costly errors by the locals, all of which figured in runs.
From 2:30 till 7:30 the two teams played, and the fans rooted loyally for their favorites. A brass band added to the pleasure, and one of the largest crowds of the season witnessed the games. The tabulated scores:

AMERICAN WINS IN YACHT RACE

Royal Canadian Club's Challenger
Is Easily Outpointed by the Seneca.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 10.—The Rochester Yacht Club's defender Seneca, this afternoon defeated the Royal Canadian Yacht Club's challenger Adele in the first of the series of races for the Canada's cup. The Adele was no match for the American boat in the light breeze, which at no time was stronger than nine miles, frequently dying down to three miles. In the last hour of the contest the wind diminished to mere zephyrs, so that the last half of the home leg was really a drifting match. When the Seneca managed to creep over the line, the Adele was about one mile in the rear and did not finish.
To-day's race for the Canada's cup was made possible by the courtesy of the Canadian yachtsmen in overlooking the violation of the agreement by the Rochester Yacht Club in not filing plans of the defender, and in waiting their forfeiture demand. The defender was permitted to be weighed and succeeded in qualifying. The official time was:
Start—Adele, 1:09:25; Seneca, 1:00:31. Finish—Seneca, 5:58:22.
The second of the races will be sailed on Monday.

Eagles Were Missing.
The Eagles yesterday forfeited the baseball game scheduled for the Lee Monument Grounds to the Hystlers, the birds failing to show up for the game.

Richmond won yesterday's game from Lynchburg in a heart-disease finish by a score of 4 to 3, thus splitting even on the two played during the series. It was a battle of mud-larks, and the luck broke against the men from the red clay country, and they lost by the smallest possible margin. The errors were all more or less attributable to a wet and muddy ball, the soft and slippery grounds, and the inability of the men to keep their feet is responsible for most of the misplays.

Despite the errors, which were nearly all costly, the game was pretty and exciting, particularly in the finish. It was anybody's victory until Gettig retired McKenna, the last Lynchburger up, at first in the ninth inning. A hit or an error would have meant defeat for the Colts, but neither came. Eady side bunched its errors in one inning chiefly, Lynchburg going to pieces in the eighth, and Richmond following suit in the ninth. Not a run was earned by either side, the nearest approach thereto being Lynchburg's first run, which was the result of a pass, a sacrifice and a double by Reeve.

Neither team got more than a hit to an inning save in the fourth, when the Shoemakers got two consecutive singles and a base on balls with only one man down. It netted nothing, however, for McKenna was caught napping off third and Cumming fanned.

The fielding features of the game were a great spot by Reeve of an apparently safe drive by Cumming just over second, and a beautiful catching catch by McKenna in the fifth, when a hit would have meant runs for Richmond.

Owing to the heavy downpour of rain early in the afternoon the idea of a double-header was abandoned, but a large crowd having gathered in expectation of a game, it was determined by the management to give them one, despite the muddy field. It was a race with the clouds, apparently in order to play five innings before the rain came, but it did not come at all, and a full game was played, save that the Colts did not need their last round. Bowen was first up and was retired on strikes, but McKenna sent a grounder to Gettig, who threw him out at first, and Hooker drove a fly to Wallace. For Richmond, Heffron was safe when Fishman fanned an effort to field the drive; Reeve sent a pop to Kirkpatrick; Titman was put out by Cummings, and Fishman fielded Wallace out at first. No runs.

Second inning: Anthony out at first; Cummings fouled out to Walsh, and Kirkpatrick gave Wallace an out. For the Colts, Siebric was safe on Fishman's fumble; Gettig popped one up to Cummings; error; Walsh sent a line fly to Fishman and Cowan was doubled at first. No runs.

In the third, Fishman fanned, Gruener was out at first, and Kline let three good ones go by. Bowen fielded Hobbs out at first; Heffron struck out and Reeve sent a fly to Hooker. No runs.

In the fourth, Lynchburg appeared to have taken Hobbs's measure and it seemed a sure thing that they would score. Bowen went out, Gettig to
